ERIC AGYEMAN SCHOOL PARTNERSHIP

“Extremely high praise for Eric. Not only was it highly engaging and potentially life changing for students, but he gave his time afterwards for all their questions, a race and a basketball session. The kids were speaking about it all day. Will recommend to others for future incursions. Thank you, Eric!”
- Scott English, Southmoor Primary

From being a gang member in High School to Youth Mentor. Two decades later Eric Agyeman was awarded the African Australian Community Impact award.

Eric’s resilience in overcoming mental health challenges, suicidal thoughts and teen gangs positions him as a great example to young people; proving that no matter your background, mistakes and challenges, you can still get back up and make your life count!

“Every young person deserves to know that they have a bright future” - Eric Agyeman

TESTIMONIALS

Hey School revival, I was somewhere in the crowd today at Caroline Chisholm Catholic College when you gave your speech. I just wanted to say that your story really inspired me and made me think differently about myself and my peers. So thank you, so much. 🙏👉 Keep doing what your doing because today I think you have changed 300 girls lives. :)

Hi, you're probably busy, but I just wanted to say that your talk today truly inspired me. It made me feel encouraged to be myself, and not let others judge me. The way you spoke so passionately about what you believe in gave me hope for me to do the same in the future. I'm so glad that you overcame what you used to dislike about yourself and use it to help other kids who feel the same. Thank you :) I think I needed to hear what you said

Hi, I'm Ae and I'm a student at Narre Warren South P-12 College. I didn't get the chance to say thank you for speaking at my school. You've inspired me to keep trying and to become a better person. You said a lot of wise sayings during the talk and each one of them touched my heart. I'll forever remember that, in your words, "Failure is an event. Not a person." I can't thank you enough for giving me more hope and inspiration than I had before. I really hope that I get another chance to listen to your stories and maybe even get to personally thank you 😊💜

'Words can kill more people than bullets do'

'Failure is just an event'

You are probably the most inspirational person i have met and i thank you because me and my mum dont have a great relationship but when you told me to respect everyone, i went and respected my mum. I listened to her and now we are getting closer again thanks to you.

“We had Eric come in to speak to 330 year 7 students, it was quietest they've ever been through any presentation, he really had them hooked and the feedback from students has been very positive.”

- Teacher, Narre Warren South P:12

“It was a life changing presentation for the students and myself as a teacher, highly recommended.”

- Eileen, Teacher, Good News Lutheran

“Incredible day, Eric's engagement with our students over 3 sessions was incredible, to have students after lunch on the edge of their seats is a testament to the passion, heart and experience Eric brings.”

-Steve, Teacher, Victory Christian College
