ERIC AGYEMAN SCHOOL PRICE LIST

“What a game changer you and your team are!
Thank you for helping us create a culture of positive change in our school community.”

— Ivanka Spiteri, Deputy Principal Well-being, Thomas Carr College

Drawing from his journey of overcoming racial bullying, Eric created the iBelong anti-bullying program and the Boys to Noble Men mentoring program—equipping young people with tools to build respect, resilience and a school culture of belonging.

Recognised as the 2022 African Australian Social Impact Award winner and author of four books, Eric is a sought after speaker across Australia, impacting thousands of students. His bold vision: to empower 1 million young people by 2031.

“Every young person deserves to know that they have a bright future.” - Eric Agyeman

TESTIMONIALS

“What a game changer you and your team are! Thank you for helping us create a culture of positive change in our school community.”

– Thomas Carr College

“The quietest our 330 students have been in any presentation, you had them at the edge of their seats with your compelling story.”

– Narre Warren South P-12 College

“Your phrase ‘failure is only an event but never a person’ is something I’ve been trying to share with my students, I’m glad they were able to hear it from another voice!”

– Waverley Christian College

“Your vulnerability meant a lot to our students, many of whom are going through the very things you went through, it was really relatable, thank you.”

– Melton Secondary College

“We had so much positive feedback from staff and students about Eric’s sessions. Moreover, the issues we had been dealing with virtually stopped after these sessions as students began to realise the impact that their words and actions could have on others. We have noticed a cultural shift that has been very positive.”

– Hillcrest Christian College
